

SHERMAN IS AHEAD

He Apparently Leads in the Legislative Caucuses.

HINGES ON THE SPEAKERSHIP

Foraker Criticizes the Administration for Interfering in the Senatorial Campaign Now On.

COLUMBIA, Ohio, Jan. 2.—The Sherman-Foraker fight for the Ohio senatorship is now red hot. The bad blood of the boomer of the rival candidates is at a boiling point and all sorts of charges are afloat. The first real test of strength this afternoon resulted in a point for Foraker. Dougherty of Fayette county, supposed to be a Foraker man, was chosen chairman of the house caucus.

The senate and house caucuses met for organization at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The house caucus is expected to indicate very reliably the strength of the senatorial candidates. The Sherman men will vote for Layton for speaker, and nearly all the Foraker men for Metcalf. Dicks, of Cincinnati, concerning whose senatorial preference there is doubt, will probably vote for Layton for speaker and for Sherman on the senate caucus. Layton is a Foraker man, while Dicks will probably go to Sherman. The Foraker men are growing very vindictive in their fight, and are particularly vigorous in their denunciation of Foraker's administration. In filling the city with his federal appointees to work for him. The general feeling here outside the Foraker headquarters and with disinterested spectators seems to be that the Sherman men are on "easy street," and that there is little doubt about the senator's re-election. The senatorial caucus will probably be held next Wednesday.

Foraker's sensation. Ex-Governor Foraker caused a sensation last night by making a speech concerning the administration for interference in the senatorial contest. The speech referred to as follows: "I am sorry to say that about three months ago that he would not scramble for re-election. It is my impression that he has changed his mind about it. At least that is indicated by the presence in this city tonight not only of all the representatives by appointment that hold office within the borders of our state, but all who can be commanded from all the confines of the United States. We have in this fight to contend upon our side against everything, as I once said before, from grand fathers' hat to baby's rattle. But against all I know whereof I speak, and I hesitate not to make the prediction without any qualification whatsoever. We did not seek this fight, but when it was thrust upon us we did not hesitate to accept the challenge. I do not know who the next standard bearer may be. Our present president has given us a good administration, but if the people of Ohio should take a notion that James G. Blaine should be the nominee, we will try and accept that, too, and if Blaine should be named we will triumphantly elect him, and when he shall have been elected we will have in the White House the greatest of all living Americans."

GUILTY OF MURDER.

Graves Convicted of His Atrocious Crime.

DESVAN, Cal., Jan. 2.—The jury in the Graves case were sent out at six o'clock and at 3:30, after having taken three ballots, they brought in a verdict of murder in first degree. The murder of Mrs. Barnaby, of which he stands convicted, was marked by cold blooded duplicity and was planned with consummate skill. Graves ingratiated himself into the confidence of the lady who was possessed of a fortune amounting to $250,000, and when he had completely won her favor he planned her death by the administration of slow poison. His purpose was to poison himself, for his fortune, and so his only way was to poison his wife. The case was a masterpiece of duplicity and was planned with consummate skill. Graves ingratiated himself into the confidence of the lady who was possessed of a fortune amounting to $250,000, and when he had completely won her favor he planned her death by the administration of slow poison. His purpose was to poison himself, for his fortune, and so his only way was to poison his wife. The case was a masterpiece of duplicity and was planned with consummate skill.

DUEL WITH KNIVES.

The Mexican Fight in Front of a Church About a Woman.

CONSUMA, Mex., Jan. 2.—A terrible duel with knives has been fought here between Antonio Gomez, the son of the proprietor of the plaza where the bull fights are held, and another young man. The young men were in love with the same girl, and were jealous of one another. When they met in front of the cathedral one of them struck the other. In a moment two knives were out and flashing in the air. One of the young men was completely disarmed, and the other fairly hacked. The latter lingered a few days, and died in a dreadful agony; the other was killed on the spot. All the time there were fighting scenes going on in the cathedral, as it was the head of Santa Maria de Guadalupe. The front of the cathedral was grandly illuminated with colored lanterns, which were hung from the eaves of the building. The people were standing around the cathedral, and were watching the fight with interest. The fight was a terrible one, and was planned with consummate skill.

GENERAL NEWS TO PIECES.

A Miscellaneous Collection of Events.

A Miscellaneous Collection of Events.

A Miscellaneous Collection of Events.

A Miscellaneous Collection of Events.

A Miscellaneous Collection of Events.

A Miscellaneous Collection of Events.

A Miscellaneous Collection of Events.

A Miscellaneous Collection of Events.

A Miscellaneous Collection of Events.

A Miscellaneous Collection of Events.

MISSED BY A CRANK

A Prominent Politician Dodges a Bullet.

WANTED COMPANY IN DEATH

John Rosh of Williamsburg Attacked by a Madman, and Narrowly Escapes His Deadly Aim.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Another homicidal crank made his appearance in Williamsburg and came near terminating the career of John Rosh, the well-known lawyer, yesterday. The would-be murderer is Charles A. Dornier, a local street, who lives at 304 South First street. The shooting occurred in the offices of the lawyer at his residence, 202 Montrose avenue. Dornier called shortly after 6 o'clock and was admitted by the lawyer's son Fred Rosh had known Dornier for several years. The man had formerly been in the employ of that the had been during the anarchist riots. The lawyer approached him with his right hand extended to shake hands, remarking at the time, "Well, Charley, what is the matter?"

"I want to die and you must die with me," said Dornier, at the same time drawing a revolver and pointing it at the lawyer's heart. Rosh, with great presence of mind, jumped to one side and the bullet missed him.

Was Formerly a Russian Soldier. The lawyer grappled with the man, and, with his son's aid, overpowered the man, finally ejecting him from the house. Special Officer Dierman reached the door as Dornier was ejected and took him to the Sixth Precinct Station. He could assign no cause for his mad act, and the man was held in custody.

Shot a Drunken Russian. NASHVILLE, Jan. 2.—Robert Milligan was shot and killed by Mrs. John Pendleton at her home, four miles from town. Milligan was drunk and had been rambling over the country all night. He went to the house of John Pendleton, who was asleep, and knocked for admittance, but was refused by Mrs. Pendleton and her mother-in-law. Milligan broke open the door with a rail and as he stepped inside he fired a shot which killed Mrs. Pendleton. The entire charge entered Milligan's forehead and he died instantly.

DECIDED TO HAVE THE NEWS. The New York Sun Withdraws From an Old Fogy Association.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—The Sun tomorrow will make the following announcement: "The Sun has withdrawn from membership in the general association of the city of New York, commonly known as the Associated Press, and will henceforth receive its news dispatches of the United Press."

Horse Attacked With Hydrophobia. Milford, Conn., Jan. 2.—A few days before Thanksgiving a horse owned by John & Co. was shot and killed by a dog. The dog was shot after he had bitten a number of other animals, and the horse's injuries were dressed. A few days ago the horse showed symptoms of madness, and on Thursday succeeded in kicking away a lady still in the house. The horse was finally put down by a shot in the head. The horse was valued at $300.

Trapped at a Wake. NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—James Lynch of 220 Nelson avenue, Jersey City, was captured at the wake of his mother-in-law, who died at the age of 84, at No. 231 East Forty-second street, on Monday last. Lynch, a well-known as a ball player, and was at the head of a gang of thieves which has robbed the Erie railroad of more than $100,000 worth of copper wire, and the lines of Lake Erie. The gang was in the habit of boarding freight trains at the tunnel and throwing the wire off, to be collected later.

Exiled Haytiens Returning. Kingston, Jamaica, Jan. 2.—Consequent upon the publication of a general amnesty in Hayti, a large number of Haytiens at present in exile in the island of Jamaica have applied to the Haytian consul at Kingston for passports to return to Hayti. None of the leaders of the exiled Haytiens, however, has been permitted to return. The minister of instruction during General Pridmore's term, who is at present living in Jamaica, will return to Hayti early next year and fill an appointment under Hippolyte.

For One Cent Postage. St. Louis, Jan. 2.—The merchants of this city are making a vigorous move upon congress to reduce letter postage from two cents to one cent an ounce. Many of them have written letters to the senatorial committee urging them to accept the measure. Senator Cameron has promised to introduce a bill to reduce the rate, and thousands more will be sent from the interior of the state within a few days.

Killed in a Volcanic Eruption. THURSDAY, Jan. 2.—In a volcano row early yesterday morning Joseph G. McGraw struck and killed Matthew Phelan. McGraw is under arrest. The men were celebrating New Year's eve and got into a dispute. Phelan was knocked down and his skull was fractured by striking the pavement.

Government Steamer Enters Harbor. MEMPHIS, Jan. 2.—The government steamer Patrol, which left here Monday on a surveying trip, was struck by a gale of wind at Commerce Landing, forty miles south of the city. The steamer was driven ashore and was wrecked. The crew was rescued, but the steamer was a total loss.

Stolen Money Found. LANSING, Jan. 2.—The correspondent of the Standard at Jackson says that some additional Jackson thieves have been traced in the A. J. McGraw case. The money was found in a safe at the residence of one of the thieves.

Imbedded in a Tree. AN AS BLIND AND TUMBLER OVER A HUNDRED YEARS OLD. GRANT CITY, Mo., Jan. 2.—While sawing a log at the sawmill of D. C. Jayne, near here, the saw struck some object which caused it to break into a hundred pieces, flying in every direction and seriously wounding two men employed in the mill. An examination showed that the saw had struck a piece of iron which was imbedded in the center of the log and which had undoubtedly been there fully one hundred years or more. It was dug out and was found to be the blade of a hand saw and with it was found a small iron nail head made of iron. These had been imbedded in the tree and the wood had grown over them to such an extent that they were almost a foot under the surface of the bark. The saw blade was found to be of the same kind as was of very rough manufacture.

Sir James Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

TWO PRETTY BALLS

Graced the Glad and Happy Holiday Week.

SOCIETY ASSUMES ACTIVITY

Cupid Bestirs Himself—Many Neat Receptions—Less Balls and Parties. Society Personals.

Society has been very gay during the past week. Thursday evening witnessed the ninth annual reception and ball of the Peninsular club. This ball excelled in elegance those which have preceded it at the club house. Three rooms were canvassed and reserved for the dancers, the reading room, the office and the ladies' dining room. The guests were served in the cafe and the court was converted into a bower of beauty for those who sought a change from the ball room. Roses and chrysanthemums were largely used in the decorations together with ferns and palms, and the Peninsular club house never presented a prettier appearance. From 10 to 12 o'clock supper was served in the dining room. Twenty numbers were upon the program, and the music was furnished by Braun's orchestra. The house was thronged with visitors nearly every member of the club being in attendance, together with a number of guests from out of the city. A complete list of the guests was published in the TELEGRAPH-HERALD Tuesday morning.

Married to Two Atresses. BOSTON, Jan. 2.—John B. Leonard, an actor, was arrested at the Gaiety and Bijou theatre Tuesday on a charge of bigamy. He is said to have married Jennie McLeod at Buffalo, N. Y., on August 29, 1879. On April 12 of this year he married again in Boston, Miss Susan H. Fulton, and the name of the wife No. 2, and should his first wife be atressee at the theatre of the theatre. Leonard is said to be a member of a regularly organized company known as the "Two Irish Cooks," now on the road. His second wife is Irish character sketches, and he has been on the stage twelve years, during which time he has made quite a reputation. The complaint was made by the first wife, and the warrant for his arrest was issued at her instigation. The second wife, who is at present in Boston, knows nothing of her husband's first marriage.

Shot a Drunken Russian. NASHVILLE, Jan. 2.—Robert Milligan was shot and killed by Mrs. John Pendleton at her home, four miles from town. Milligan was drunk and had been rambling over the country all night. He went to the house of John Pendleton, who was asleep, and knocked for admittance, but was refused by Mrs. Pendleton and her mother-in-law. Milligan broke open the door with a rail and as he stepped inside he fired a shot which killed Mrs. Pendleton. The entire charge entered Milligan's forehead and he died instantly.

DECIDED TO HAVE THE NEWS. The New York Sun Withdraws From an Old Fogy Association.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—The Sun tomorrow will make the following announcement: "The Sun has withdrawn from membership in the general association of the city of New York, commonly known as the Associated Press, and will henceforth receive its news dispatches of the United Press."

Horse Attacked With Hydrophobia. Milford, Conn., Jan. 2.—A few days before Thanksgiving a horse owned by John & Co. was shot and killed by a dog. The dog was shot after he had bitten a number of other animals, and the horse's injuries were dressed. A few days ago the horse showed symptoms of madness, and on Thursday succeeded in kicking away a lady still in the house. The horse was finally put down by a shot in the head. The horse was valued at $300.

Trapped at a Wake. NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—James Lynch of 220 Nelson avenue, Jersey City, was captured at the wake of his mother-in-law, who died at the age of 84, at No. 231 East Forty-second street, on Monday last. Lynch, a well-known as a ball player, and was at the head of a gang of thieves which has robbed the Erie railroad of more than $100,000 worth of copper wire, and the lines of Lake Erie. The gang was in the habit of boarding freight trains at the tunnel and throwing the wire off, to be collected later.

Exiled Haytiens Returning. Kingston, Jamaica, Jan. 2.—Consequent upon the publication of a general amnesty in Hayti, a large number of Haytiens at present in exile in the island of Jamaica have applied to the Haytian consul at Kingston for passports to return to Hayti. None of the leaders of the exiled Haytiens, however, has been permitted to return. The minister of instruction during General Pridmore's term, who is at present living in Jamaica, will return to Hayti early next year and fill an appointment under Hippolyte.

For One Cent Postage. St. Louis, Jan. 2.—The merchants of this city are making a vigorous move upon congress to reduce letter postage from two cents to one cent an ounce. Many of them have written letters to the senatorial committee urging them to accept the measure. Senator Cameron has promised to introduce a bill to reduce the rate, and thousands more will be sent from the interior of the state within a few days.

Killed in a Volcanic Eruption. THURSDAY, Jan. 2.—In a volcano row early yesterday morning Joseph G. McGraw struck and killed Matthew Phelan. McGraw is under arrest. The men were celebrating New Year's eve and got into a dispute. Phelan was knocked down and his skull was fractured by striking the pavement.

Government Steamer Enters Harbor. MEMPHIS, Jan. 2.—The government steamer Patrol, which left here Monday on a surveying trip, was struck by a gale of wind at Commerce Landing, forty miles south of the city. The steamer was driven ashore and was wrecked. The crew was rescued, but the steamer was a total loss.

Stolen Money Found. LANSING, Jan. 2.—The correspondent of the Standard at Jackson says that some additional Jackson thieves have been traced in the A. J. McGraw case. The money was found in a safe at the residence of one of the thieves.

Imbedded in a Tree. AN AS BLIND AND TUMBLER OVER A HUNDRED YEARS OLD. GRANT CITY, Mo., Jan. 2.—While sawing a log at the sawmill of D. C. Jayne, near here, the saw struck some object which caused it to break into a hundred pieces, flying in every direction and seriously wounding two men employed in the mill. An examination showed that the saw had struck a piece of iron which was imbedded in the center of the log and which had undoubtedly been there fully one hundred years or more. It was dug out and was found to be the blade of a hand saw and with it was found a small iron nail head made of iron. These had been imbedded in the tree and the wood had grown over them to such an extent that they were almost a foot under the surface of the bark. The saw blade was found to be of the same kind as was of very rough manufacture.

Sir James Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

St. James' Redhouse. DEATH OF THE FAMOUS BRITISH SENATOR AT LONDON. LONDON, Jan. 2.—Sir James Redhouse, the celebrated senator, is dead. The exact cause of his death is not known, but it is supposed to be the result of a long illness.

white silk; Miss Robinson, yellow silk; Miss Farnsworth, of Orange, N. Y., white silk; Miss Welton of Detroit, lavender and white striped silk trimmed with white; Miss Edie, white silk; Miss Sarah Smith, white crepe de chine; Miss Easton, figured silk; Miss Grady, pale blue children trimmed with pale blue ribbon; Miss Jones, light striped silk; Miss Davis of Detroit, white silk. The gentlemen guests were Messrs. Len Robinson, Alfred Hunt, Harry Woodson, Thos. Bradfield, Will Perkins, George Holston, John Avery, Walter Brookings, Ralph Widdicombe, Willard Spring, Burn Haseltine, David Uhl, Hugh Blair, Howard O'Brien, Carroll Perkins, Morgan Smith, Richard R. Smith, Kendall Hawkins, Roy Barnhart, A. D. Rathbone, Jr., Roy Barnhart, Bert Cobb, Harry Porter, of Connecticut, Arthur H. Atkins, of Buffalo, N. Y. The grand march was led by Mr. Atkins and Miss Wenderly followed by Mr. Richard Smith and Miss Pierce.

ROBNETS AND NECKTIES. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Pantland, Give Elegant Honors for a Time.

Mr. and Mrs. James Boyd Pantland gave a novel informal party New Year's eve in honor of Mrs. A. A. McLeod of Philadelphia. The guests selected partners by means of the original program, which was prepared with materials and instructed to begin work. The ladies were to make neckties for their escorts and the gentlemen were to trim bonnets for the ladies. Some of the effects were ludicrous in the extreme, but the hats and ties were worn during the evening.

Mr. Willard Barnhart, who pinned a massive bunch of grapes upon a queen shaped hat, won the first prize, and the necktie which he wore was equally honored. The entire party watched the old year out and the new year in. They were Messrs. and Mesdames Lewis H. Withey, Joseph Penny, Charles H. Penny, J. H. Wenderly, John Y. F. Blake, Wilder Stevens, Willard Barnhart, Geo. C. Peirce, Mrs. McLeod and Mrs. M. V. Aldrich. The evening concluded with the playing of old fashioned games.

CUPID AND HIS COURT. What the Winged Little Fellow Has Claimed.

The marriage of Mr. Milton Reeder and Miss Mattie Ohler of this city took place Tuesday evening at the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr. Joseph Shunkman, in the presence of about forty of the relatives and friends of the interested parties.

The ceremony was performed in a very impressive manner by the Rev. Thos. G. Smith. Mr. Geo. W. Russell acted as groomsmen, with Miss Mattie Dole as bridesmaid. The bride was beautiful in a dress of white crepe de chine, with chain trimming, and white roses. After the ceremony the guests discussed a fine wedding supper, rendered doubly enjoyable by the music furnished by Miss Ella Shunkman's mandolin and guitar orchestra. At 10:30 o'clock, amid the congratulations of friends and the